

*B*ethpage State Park has earned the reputation as the finest public golf complex in the country. The facility is comprised of five championship golf courses, among them the legendary Black, which hosted the United States Open Championship in 2002 and 2009, The Barclays in 2012 and 2016, the PGA Championship in 2019 and will host the Ryder Cup in 2025.

The Green Course designed by Devereaux Emmet opened for public play in 1932. The Blue, Red and Black Courses, designed by A. W. Tillinghast, opened between 1935 and 1936. The Yellow Course was designed by Alfred H. Tull and was the fifth and final course opened in 1958.

Bethpage offers a number of accommodations built to suit your tournament, corporate golf outing or charitable event. Our outing staff, golf professionals at Bethpage Golf Group and on-site catering through The Heritage Club at Bethpage are pleased to provide tournament administration and customized events.

The cost per golfer for the Black Course Small Outing is $700. If you have any questions, please contact the Outing Coordinator: Georgiana Marshen – 631.962.0149 or by email at georgiana.marshen@parks.ny.gov
